Re: FOIA Case No. 2012-FPRO-00075

Dear Mr. Morisy:

This letter responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated October 16, 2011. You requested access to the following Postal Service records: "A copy of voting tallies for each USPS Board of Governors vote taken between 2008 and the date of receipt of this request."

We have determined that there are 62 pages of records responsive to your request. We are releasing 41 pages in full and releasing 21 pages with redactions.

Generally, FOIA requires government agencies to disclose reasonably described "records" within their possession unless the records fall within one or more of several exemptions. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(3), (b)(1)-(9). Records responsive to your request were redacted under Exemption 3 in conjunction with 39 U.S.C. § 410(c)(2).

FOIA Exemption 3 provides that agencies may withhold records that are exempted from disclosure by another statute that "(A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on the issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld." 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3). Subsection (c)(2) of Section 410 of Title 39 provides that Subsection (b)(1), which generally subjects the Postal Service to follow the requirements imposed by FOIA, does not require the disclosure of "information of a commercial nature, . . . whether or not obtained from a person outside the Postal Service, which under good business practice would not be publicly disclosed."

The Postal Service forms contracts with private businesses for the discounted provision of competitive postal products like Priority Mail and Express Mail. These contracts are filed under seal with the Postal Regulatory Commission (PRC), and only redacted copies of the contracts and certain other documents are posted on the PRC website, PRC.gov. The Postal Service competes with private companies for these contracts, and considers the identities of these businesses to be information of a commercial nature under § 410(c)(2). Therefore, these identities have been redacted from the voting tallies.

If you construe this response to be a denial of your request, you may appeal by writing to the General Counsel, U. S. Postal Service, 475 L'Enfant Plaza, SW, Room 6004, Washington DC 20260-1100, within 30 days of the date of this letter. The letter of appeal should include statements concerning this response, the reasons why it is believed to be erroneous, and the relief sought, along with copies of the original request letter, this letter, and any other related correspondence.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Julie S. Moore".

Julie S. Moore
Secretary of the Board of Governors
